

You're invited

Ponte Vedra High School PTO Community Program Series

*Tuesday, January 17th @ 5:30
PVHS Auditorium*

"Navigating Standardized Test Prep: Choosing between evolving tests, and figuring out what it all means for the college admissions process"

- Scheduling standardized tests (SAT, ACT, Subject Tests)
- Latest Trends in Standardized Testing and College Admissions
- Navigating the ACT vs. the SAT Decision
- Changes to the SAT & ACT

Presenters:

- Dr. Catherine Snowden has degrees from Princeton and Vanderbilt and a wealth of experience in college admissions, having served as Director of College Planning for Ponte Vedra High School for six years.
- Pam Ohno has degrees from Purdue and Northwestern and over a decade of experience working as a professional writer and editor. College Planning Partners specializes in college preparation, planning, and admissions consulting services.
- Ashleigh Barnes holds a JD and a PhD. Previously a law professor; she is a Director at University Select.
- Jonathan Andrew is a two-time Harvard graduate and a Director of University Select. University Select, LLC is a group of academics committed to rethinking standardized test prep.

* Guardians and students are invited

* Come with questions, as this will be a Q&A presentation!