TO: STUDENT-ATHLETE

This school that you have chosen to attend is a member of the Florida High School Athletic Association (FHSAA). The FHSAA has rules that prohibit a member school from making any effort to encourage or entice a student to attend there for athletic purposes. This is called athletic recruiting, and it is not permitted on the high school level. The Florida Legislature, in fact, has directed the FHSAA to “adopt bylaws that specifically prohibit the recruiting of students for athletic purposes.”

What follows is an explanation of athletic recruiting rules and the penalties for violating them. You and your parent(s) or legal guardian(s) must read this document and declare that you were not recruited to attend the school for athletic purposes by signing the attached “Affidavit of Compliance with Policy on Athletic Recruiting” in the presence of a notary public. The signed affidavit must be submitted to the FHSAA Office before the school can permit you to participate in interscholastic athletic competition.

Please read this information carefully. Sign the affidavit truthfully and honestly. Do not sign the affidavit if you have any questions about these rules or believe that a violation of these rules may have occurred. Instead, have your school’s athletic director contact the FHSAA Office by phone at 352.372.9551 ext. 340 or by e-mail at compliance@fhsaa.org. Violations of athletic recruiting rules can and do result in severe penalties for the school and the student-athlete. Making an inaccurate statement by signing the affidavit when you know you should not will only make these penalties worse for all involved if violations are later determined to have occurred.

What is athletic recruiting?

Athletic recruiting is any attempt by any employee or athletic department staff member of an FHSAA member school, a representative of the school’s athletic interests or a third party to pressure, urge or entice a student who does not attend that school to change his/her attendance there for the purpose of athletic participation. This occurs when the school employee, athletic department staff member or representative of the school’s athletic interests makes improper contact with the student or a member of his/her family in an effort to pressure or urge the student to go to that school OR promises, offers or gives the student an impermissible benefit in an effort to entice the student to go to that school.

Who is “a representative of the school’s athletic interests?”

Any person, business or organization that participates in, assists with, and/or promotes a school’s athletic program is considered to be a representative of the school’s athletic interests. This includes, but is not limited to:

- A student-athlete or other student participant in the athletic program, such as a team manager, student trainer, etc., at that school;
- The parents, guardians or other family members of a student-athlete or other student participant in the athletic program at that school;
- Relatives of a coach or other members of the athletic department staff at that school;
- A volunteer worker in that school or that school’s athletic program;
- An athletic booster organization of that school;
- A member of an athletic booster organization of that school;
- A person, business or organization that makes financial or in-kind contributions to the athletic department or to an athletic booster organization of that school; and
- Any other person, business or organization that is otherwise involved in promoting the school’s interscholastic athletic program.

What is improper contact with a student who does not attend a school?

Any contact or communication of any kind with a student who does not attend a particular school, or a member of the student's family, in attempt to pressure, urge or entice the student to change attendance to a different school for athletic reasons is improper. The improper contact can either be in person, through written or electronic means such as letters, flyers, e-mails or text messages, or through a third party. Did someone talk you into changing to this school to play athletics? Did someone urge you to change to this school to play athletics? If so, you may have been athletically recruited.

What is an impermissible benefit?

An impermissible benefit is any benefit that is promised, offered or given to a student or a member of his/her family but is not offered or generally made available to all students who apply to or attend the school.

Did someone promise, offer or give you anything more than what any other student who attends this school is generally promised, offered or given that caused you to decide to change to this school? If so, it probably is an impermissible benefit.

What is a "third party"?

A "third party" is an independent person, business or organization who may or may not be a representative of the school's athletic interests.

What are the penalties for violations of athletic recruiting rules by a member school?

A member school that violates athletic recruiting rules will be assessed one or more of the following penalties:

- A public reprimand;
- A financial penalty;
- Forfeiture of all contests and awards won in which the student who was athletically recruited or received an impermissible benefit participated or contributed;
- One or more forms of probation (administrative, restrictive or suspension) for one or more years;
- Prohibition against participating or coaching in certain competitions, including state playoffs, for one or more years in the sport(s) in which the violation(s) occurred;
- Prohibition against participating in any competitions for one or more years in the sport(s) in which the violation(s) occurred;
- Restricted membership for one or more years during which some or all of the school's membership privileges are restricted or denied;
- Expulsion from membership in the FHSAA.

What are the penalties for a student who is found to have been athletically recruited or receives an impermissible benefit?

A student who is athletically recruited or receives an impermissible benefit will be ineligible for athletic competition for one or more years at the school where the violation occurred, and may be declared ineligible for athletic competition at all FHSAA member schools for one or more years.
